

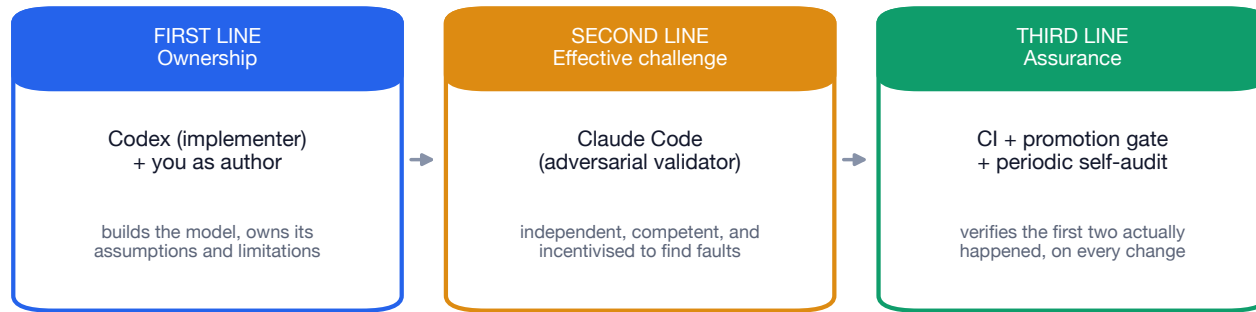

Figure 11 — SR 11-7 model risk governance, mapped onto a one-person operation

The report's existing rule that the writer is never the sole reviewer IS the SR 11-7 independence principle. Using a different vendor for review adds model diversity on top of role separation, so a shared blind spot in one model family cannot pass unchallenged.